Jodhamal students win INTACH Quiz

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Jodhamal quizzers have once again proved their mettle in the quizzing arena by clinching the City Finale Trophy in the online INTACH Quiz Competition.

Eighty students from different schools such as BSF Senior Secondary School, APS Damana, APS Jammu Cantt, G.D. Goenka, Heritage, KC International and Model Academy participated in the first round of the quiz.

This year the amidst the pandemic the responsibility of hosting the quiz online was undertaken by Jodhamal Public School, an active member of INTACH Jammu chapter.

In the grilling first round where the teams fought for securing a place in the finals, four top teams qualified for the city finals with Jodhamal quizzers leading the tally with highest points.

Team Jodhamal comprising of Swayambhu and Lakshya

Singh Sambyal both class 10th students emerged as winners of the city finals of the INTACH Quiz.

The quiz questions comprised of a mixture of National and Local heritage. The winning team will now lock horns with teams from other states in the National Finals.

The convenor INTACH Jammu chapter S.M. Sahni congratulated the winners and expressed his gratitude towards Jodhamal Public School and the quizmaster Sanjay Pandey for organising the quiz.

Principal of Jodhamal Public School, Dr. Deep Khare and trustee Nandan Kuthiala congratulated the team on its success and wished the team good luck for their state round.
